This 4+1 villa provides a generous interior arrangement supported by substantial private outdoor space. Its 250 m² layout includes a large living room and an American-style open kitchen, creating a connected main living area suitable for everyday family life and entertaining. The large balcony adds another practical space from which to enjoy the surrounding sea and nature views.

The property is offered with luxury furnishings, allowing the existing interior setup to be retained by the new owner. Three bathrooms with WCs help accommodate the villa's four-bedroom configuration, while the jacuzzi and private indoor sauna add dedicated facilities for relaxation at home.

Outside, the 700 m² plot gives the residence space for a private swimming pool, garden and fruit trees. Private parking is also provided within the property. These features offer a useful balance between indoor comfort and outdoor living, with areas for swimming, spending time in the garden and enjoying Alanya's climate in a private residential setting. The presence of 24/7 security is an additional practical feature.

Kargicak Setting with Sea and Nature Views

Granada VIP Villa is situated in Kargicak, a district of Alanya known for its residential surroundings and natural landscape. The villa has both sea and nature views and is approximately 2.5 km from the coast. This location places the property away from the immediate seafront while keeping the shoreline within a stated distance of the home.

The combination of a 4+1 plan, furnished interior, 700 m² plot and private leisure facilities may suit buyers looking for a larger home in Kargicak. The open-plan kitchen and spacious living room support shared family use, while the balcony, pool and garden provide separate areas for outdoor time. The sauna and jacuzzi further distinguish the property for buyers who value wellness facilities within their own residence.
