- Possibility of creating a separate kitchen
- 250 m² of usable living space
- Fully furnished
- Private garden
- Unobstructed open view and exposure on all sides
- Two balconies and one large terrace
- Four bathrooms with toilets
- Pantry and a small attic storage area
- Private sauna and private covered parking
- Shared swimming pool, fitness area and on-site attendant
- Approximately 1.5 km from the sea

The villa's 4+1 configuration and 250 m² of usable space provide a substantial interior for everyday living. The existing plan also offers the possibility of arranging a separate kitchen, allowing a future owner to adapt the kitchen area according to personal preferences. A pantry adds practical storage close to the main living areas, while the small storage space in the attic provides another useful place for seasonal or household items.

Outdoor space is an important part of this Toros 3 property. The villa has its own private garden, two balconies and a large terrace, giving residents several distinct areas for sitting outside, dining or enjoying the open surroundings. Its position benefits from exposure on all sides and an unobstructed open view. These features help create a greater sense of space around the home without relying solely on the shared areas of the residential complex.

Four bathrooms with toilets support the needs of a 4+1 home and make the layout practical for larger households and visiting guests. The villa is offered fully furnished, which can simplify the transition for a buyer who prefers a property with its principal furnishings already in place. A private sauna adds a dedicated wellness feature inside the residence.

The property also has private covered parking, providing a designated and sheltered place for a vehicle. Within the shared residential site, owners can use the swimming pool and fitness area. An on-site attendant is also available as part of the complex facilities. These shared services complement the villa's private garden, sauna, terraces and parking.

Kargicak Location Approximately 1.5 km from the Sea

Toros 3 Villa is located in Kargicak, a district of Alanya, approximately 1.5 km from the sea. The combination of generous interior dimensions, private outdoor areas and communal facilities makes it relevant for buyers seeking a furnished villa in a managed residential setting. Its pantry, attic storage, multiple bathrooms and optional separate-kitchen arrangement also add practical flexibility for regular or extended use.
