The south-facing orientation is an important practical feature, complementing the bright character of the living spaces. Together with the generous usable area, it creates an interior that feels open and comfortable. The third-floor position provides access via the building’s lift, supporting convenient movement between the property and the shared areas of the residence.

Vesta Park Residence includes several facilities designed for leisure and regular use. The outdoor swimming pool provides a place to relax during suitable weather, while the on-site fitness centre allows residents to exercise without leaving the complex. A sauna adds another wellness option. These shared amenities are supported by the maintained condition of the residential site.

Convenient Cikcilli Location Near Everyday Amenities

Cikcilli is one of Alanya’s frequently preferred residential districts. This property is positioned close to markets, shopping centres and social areas, helping simplify routine shopping and access to local services. The location may appeal to buyers who value practical urban convenience together with the facilities of an organised residential complex.

The combination of a furnished interior, 115 m² of space, south-facing orientation and on-site leisure amenities makes this Vesta Park Residence property relevant for buyers seeking an established home in Cikcilli. No unsupported claims are made regarding views, distances or financial returns; prospective buyers can assess the home according to their own residential or property-purchase requirements.
