Le Méridien Bodrum combines modern architecture with a resort-oriented approach to coastal living. Its position directly beside the sea allows the development to make full use of the private bay and its panoramic Aegean surroundings. The project includes residences in a range of sizes as well as villa alternatives, providing several property formats within the same managed resort setting.

Not every home within the development has identical characteristics. Selected residences are described as having private garden areas, while some benefit from sea views. Buyers can therefore compare the available options according to their preferred outdoor space, outlook and property type. Specific residence or villa details should be reviewed individually when considering a unit in the project.

The shared facilities form an important part of the Le Méridien Bodrum Beach Resort concept. Swimming options include outdoor and indoor pools together with a lagoon-style pool filled with seawater. Vitalica Wellness and the fitness centre provide dedicated spaces for wellbeing and exercise, while the project's restaurants and bars add convenient dining and social choices within the resort environment.

Families can also benefit from a children's club, and the coastal setting is complemented by a selection of water sports. Combined with the private beach and long shoreline, these amenities support a varied seaside lifestyle without relying solely on facilities outside the development. The hotel-standard service approach further reinforces the project's resort character.

Private-bay living in Adabükü near Bodrum Airport

Adabükü is known for its natural coves and calm Aegean atmosphere. Le Méridien Bodrum Beach Resort places this coastal setting alongside contemporary architecture and an extensive range of on-site amenities. Its location approximately 15 km from Milas-Bodrum Airport is particularly practical for owners and guests travelling to the Bodrum region by air.

The project may suit buyers seeking a residence or villa in a large-scale seafront development rather than an independent home without shared services. The choice of property formats, private shoreline, wellness facilities, pools, dining venues and family amenities creates a comprehensive resort environment in one of Bodrum's coastal districts.
